

This is not an intellectual discussion group.
It is a discussion group for all types of people.

Feelings are as appropriate as thoughts,
And no ideas are stupid ideas.

The “owner” of a question
Has the right to introduce their question
And/or the right to a final response.

Be honest.

Everyone is entitled to change their mind.
Be transparent:
Declare when you are playing the devil’s advocate.

Be Real:
Say what you think, not what you think you should.

If necessary, be prepared to agree to disagree.

Be considerate.

Respect confidentiality.

One person speaks at a time.

Don’t speak for longer than 2mins at a time
(in general discussion).

Don’t get personal, or be disrespectful.

Remember, you could be wrong.
