REFLECTING ON

NARNIA

WHICH OF THE CHILDREN ... did you most relate to?

Lucy

Lucy, while timid and shy, is braver than she thinks she is! The youngest child, she is first through the Wardrobe, and is optimistic, compassionate and a truth-teller.

Susan

Susan is mature and respectable, "motherly"... and sometimes bossy. She is always loyal and faithful.

Edmund

Edmund begins the story as a mean, spiteful boy. He is tempted by the White Witch and betrays his brother and sisters to her. However he does the right thing in the end.

Peter

Peter is brave, loyal and intelligent. He upholds what he thinks is right.

Who do you think you are most like?

Who would you like to be more like?

Why? What do you like about that character?

WHAT GIFT ... would you like to receive?

When the "always winter and never Christmas" spell began to break in Narnia, Father Christmas came and gave gifts to the children:

To Peter he gave a shield and a sword.

To Susan a bow and arrows and a horn to blow when she needed help.

To Lucy he gave a little bottle full of healing cordial and a dagger to defend herself.

Each gift had its use later in the story, in battle, in bringing healing, in calling for help

What gift would you like to be given? Why?

WHO ... is Aslan like?

Who arrived at the same time as Father Christmas?
