

Sense Making Faith

Our faith journey is a journey into the mystery of God. It's right before us yet never quite clear, always beckoning us deeper. It's life giving, colourful and hard to describe...

Wednesday Evenings 7pm for 7:30 - 9:00pm

The Corner - 93 Oaklands Rd (Cnr Oaklands & Diagonal Rds) Warradale, SA

an experiential course that takes you on a spiritual journey

Exploring, looking, doing, asking and dreaming through your mind, body, the world around you.

Helping you explore your faith through your senses. Each session will uncover Biblical resources, the church tradition and our world today.

Space will be given to reflect on the implications of mission, church and discipleship.

Nine weeks of journey, facilitated by three guides...

Steve Taylor - Principal of Uniting College, writer, blogger, has run Sense Making Faith with a wide variety of groups, including community health groups, spiritual seekers and Christian worship leaders

Mark Hewitt - Minister at The Corner UC, visual artist, photographer, with a passion for creating spaces that are worshipful and allow spiritual exploration

Sarah Agnew - is a poet, and Biblical Storyteller. She leads the church in local, state, national and international contexts with biblical storytelling, workshops in storytelling, poetry, worship and public speaking, teaching biblical studies and writing stories, prayers and liturgy
